Customs Clearance authority

I/we _____ (Client Business Name)

with ABN _____ (Client ABN)

hereby authorise Customs Brokers Pty Ltd ABN, 63636237682, corporate brokerage license 0172C, (the Company) its subsidiaries or other business names, and its nominees and/or subagents as may be appointed when required to act as my/our Licensed Customs Broker for the purposes outlined in the Customs Act 1901 section 181 on behalf of the above mentioned Quay Logistics Pty Ltd.

Authority for other legislative and related purposes

The Client further authorises the company to quote the Customs ABN as may be required by the ATO, and other related legislation in respect of the imported goods, or the exported goods to Australian Border force, or any other Government Authority on their behalf or on behalf of their clients. This relates to the actions of clearance, transportation of the goods, and other reporting obligations or goods and services undertaken for the Company.

Acknowledgement and acceptance of trading terms and conditions

The Client acknowledges receipt of the Trading Conditions of the Company, a copy of which can be provided on request.

Indemnity and inconsistency

We agree to indemnify Customs Brokers Pty Ltd against any claims or demands made against them arising from any declarations made on our behalf.

Any inconsistency between trading terms and conditions, a service agreement, credit application or fee shall be considered in this order unless explicitly outlined in another agreement.

Document retention

The Client acknowledges that all documents relating to customs clearances, import and export and related matters are required to be kept for a minimum of 5 years and presented to the relevant authorities on request by either themselves as the client to Customs Brokers Pty Ltd or the importer or exporter themselves.

Cancellation of previous authority and authorisation

This Authority cancels all previous authorities in force from this date. This authority requires termination by the Customer in writing.
